TO TURN CRIMINALS INTO WHITE ANGELS

PITTSBURGH, Pa., March 14.—Capt. W. D. Smith guarantees to "make angels" out of the most hardened criminals if he be allowed to chaaten them aboard his good ship Success, which was once the old British prison ship used in transporting convicts from England to Australia.
Captain Smith has been exhibiting the vessel in the local river, and his offer was made when he learned of the ways of crime which is sweeping Pittsburgh.
The tortures on the Success include leg and body iron, punishment ball, iron straitjacket, spiked collar, ringed stone of 2,000 pounds, armor neadgear and flogging frames. The Success is the last of the felon fleet, and is the oldest ship afloat today.
The captain would be glad to demonstrate his apparatus on some of Pittsburgh's "bad 'uns."

BEGGARS' RELEASE WON BY UNIFORM

CHICAGO, March 14.—Three soldiers charged with begging came before Judge Haas in the South Clark street court. He ordered each fined $5 and costs. After the men in uniform had been put into the "bullpen" they wrote the judge a note:
"Sir, we were soldiers. Please let us go," it read.
"I'll heed this appeal, but it is absolutely the last time," Judge Haas said.
The soldiers, who gave the names of Fred Fisher, John Thompson and Edward Ternowski, did not reply when the judge asked them if they could not get work. Ternowski served overseas. Fisher was in the army nine years, also in the Canadian army.

WAVED GUN AT BILTMORE AND KAISER GOT HIM

NEW YORK, March 14.—Charged with violating the Sullivan law in flourishing a captured German revolver in the lobby of the Hotel Biltmore, Harry J. Fitzpatrick, thirty-one, was held in $500 bail for special sessions by Magistrate Grobel in the night's court.

According to the story told in court, Fitzpatrick yesterday went to see his brother, Lieut. Reginald J. Fitzpatrick, just returned with the Twenty-seventh division, his brother gave him an automatic revolver he had taken from a German soldier captured in Flanders.
Returning to this city with the war trophy in a holster, Fitzpatrick, it is alleged, freed the holster from its belt and began flourishing it above his head in the Biltmore foyer, the gun inside its case.

"He clutched the gun called to one of the bellboys, 'Get Kaiser, get Kaiser, quick!' referring to Patrolman John Kaiser, on duty near the hotel.

"That right, get the Kaiser and I'll get him," Fitzpatrick is said to have shouted, but his belligerency faded when he found Kaiser wasn't a Hohenzollern, but a policeman.

While the army of occupation winds up the Watch on the Rhine, your income tax will help wind up the cost of getting there. Pay it today.

'HIS' SUIT TOO TIGHT; LOCKED UP; WOMAN

PONTIAC, Mich., March 14.—Why Mrs. Virginia Harris, thirty-five, fled from Chicago, attired in a suit of clothes she says belongs to her seventeen-year-old son, with her hair cut short and combed back from her forehead in the prevailing masculine style, is being investigated by Sheriff C. M. Cross.

The sheriff has Virginia in her male attire locked up at the jail, where she tearfully pleads that she be allowed women's clothes.

Virginia is plump, even heavy set, and has crammed her 175 pounds of solid avoirdupois into a suit of clothes designed to fit her son. It fits like a glove, causing one to gasp when Virginia moves about.

She says she came from Chicago in the smoking compartment of a regular train and there discussed work and other topics of everyday interest with men passengers.

Mrs. Harris says she is the wife of George Harris, of Windsor, with whom she has not lived for seven years. She admits she did thirty days recently in the Chicago workhouse.

Mrs. Harris declares her arrest is the result of a frame-up by her sister.

DENY BITTER TRADE RIVALRY BETWEEN U. S. AND BRITAIN

Denial of prospective bitter rivalry between Britain and America for sea and trade supremacy was made by Chairman Edward N. Hurley, of the Shipping Board, and Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Rowe before the Pan-American trade conference, here, late yesterday.
Dr. Rowe, who is in charge of the customs division of the Treasury, emphasized the necessity of getting the international trade discussion on a fact basis.

"There is no ocean freight rate war between the United States and Great Britain," Hurley asserted.

"We falsely hear that British freight rates are so far below our that Britain is making alarming inroads on our shipping. The truth is that the United States Shipping Board is reducing American rates just as rapidly as is logically possible."

TYPIST HIT WRONG KEY; HE ESCAPES JAIL TERM

RANGOR, Me., March 14.—Because a typist hit the wrong key Victor Claison, a local hotel proprietor, is saved from jail. Deputy sheriffs raided the hotel and captured a quantity of liquor. The young woman typist who made out the warrant hit a "p" instead of an "o," making the warrant read "violation" instead of "violation." Counsel for Claison claimed that the warrant was defective, and Judge Blanchard, of municipal court, sustained the claim. The case was dismissed.

RAT KILLING IN ILLINOIS TO BECOME VERY POPULAR

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., March 14.—Rat killing in Illinois, premises to become as popular as bridge and poker parties if the House of Representatives passes a bill now before it providing for the extermination of millions of rodents in the State by the bounty system. The bounty is 2 cents a head. Arguments for the extermination of the pests are that they are disease carriers and were largely responsible for the recent hoof and mouth disease epidemic throughout the country.

CLAIMS WAGES WERE DUE FOR TIME SPENT IN JAIL

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., March 14.—A new phase of Bolshevism was uncovered here when John McGinnia, knight of the road, and who claimed Providence, R. I., as his home, demanded wages for the time which he spent in jail on the charge of vagrancy.

A crowd of Unilef Sam's girl employees gathered around the singer as he made out the tax report, and all laughed when he asked if he was entitled to $2,000 exemption as a result of his recent marriage.

WHEN YOU WAKE UP DRINK GLASS OF HOT WATER

Wash the poisons and toxins from system before putting more food into stomach.

Wash yourself on the inside before breakfast like you do on the outside. This is the most important because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing illness, while the bowel pores do.

For every ounce of food and drink taken into the stomach, nearly an ounce of waste material must be carried out of the body. If this waste material is not eliminated day by day it quickly ferments and generates poisons, gases and toxins which are absorbed in the blood stream, through the lymph ducts which should suck only nourishment to sustain the body.

A splendid health measure is to drink, before breakfast each day, a glass of real hot water, with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, which is a harmless way to wash these poisons, gases and toxins from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels; thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

A quarter pound of limestone phosphate costs but very little at the drug store, but is sufficient to make anyone an enthusiast on inside-bathing.

New Things for the Home

Curtains Are the Coat-of-Arms of Your House

As your family coat-of-arms tells much of the history of the family, so do the curtains that hang at your windows tell much of the history of the dwellers within the house. You know, yourself, that you judge a house by the appearance of the windows, and that you expect happiness and peace behind dainty window hangings.

The Panel Curtain is having a great vogue, and I saw very lovely ones in the Drapery Department. Some of them were of all-over laces, others were of voile with insets and insertions of filet medallions and bandings.

Filet Net, by the yard, is shown in new patterns, in both large and small designs, and many housewives like to have every window of the entire house curtained with the same net.

It is an open secret among wise women that the lovely nets and scrims and voiles sold in the Drapery Department make the most serviceable summer frocks, and also that the present vogue for net blouses will be most economical if the net is found in the same department.

Heavy Linen Laces

All widths and kinds are shown in this same department, in patterns quite as suitable for trimming dresses as for curtains. Dame fashion is calling loudly for much lace on the summer frocks, and especially for heavy laces on linen and the modish unbleached domestic dresses that have been brought out as great novelties. Among the laces that I saw were some very charming matched edges and bandings, and some filet squares of various sizes, and there is an assortment of all kinds of odds and ends of laces offered on one big table at very special March sale prices.

Almost Every Woman Knows It

The Drapery Department offers an interesting assortment of silk brocades that make the loveliest evening coats, as well as hand bags, and that oftentimes the colorings are more artistic than she can find in other departments. I saw some drapery silks that would fashion into stunning summer frocks. And there is a table piled up with bits of imported brocades in every imaginable combination, some of which would be just the thing for hand bags, hat crowns and the fashionable vestees that every woman is wearing with the new suits. Especially stylish with a brown suit would be a brown satin brocade that shows figures of a shimmering gold, and as the entire piece was priced at $10.00, a deft fingered woman could use it for a number of dress accessories which would cost infinitely more if purchased otherwise.

I wonder how many women who are looking for lovely silks and tassels and trimmings for lamp shades of all kinds know that there is a delightful selection to be found in the Drapery Department, including tassels of silks and silk, silver and bronze, and gossamer of gilt and silver in many widths, as well as flowers and ornaments.

Cretannes and Printed Linens

It is an easy matter to select just the piece that you want to tone in with the color scheme that you have in mind for any room of your home, from the delectably tinted cretonnes for the nursery, with Jack and Jill and all the favorites of the little folks romping across backdrops of soft creams or blues or rose, to gorgeously colored linens suited to formal furnishings.

To show you just the effect of the colors a number of simulated windows have been hung about with curtains and draperies of many kinds, and it is a great satisfaction to see the effect of material as it will look in your own home. Many of these, too, are at special prices for this month.

There Are All Sorts of Cushions, Too

They are made in all sorts of shapes, round and square, and oblong, but to many of them a little twist or quirk has been given of which perhaps you would not have thought. That is why it is such a pleasure to roam around and enjoy the pretty things and gather new ideas and inspirations that you can use yourself.

New Stenciled Crashes Look Inviting

Several new designs are shown, and entire furnishings can be matched up, including overcurtains, couch cover, table cover, pillow tops of many shapes, and table runners. There is something delightfully restful about this cool neutral-tinted crash with its bit of vivid coloring in the border that appeals to many folks who do not care for more highly colored hangings, and stenciled crash has the added virtue of wearing and washing beautifully.

Have You Seen the New Wicker Furniture?

Especially that artistic set of Decorated Parchment, in which the reed has been tinted a rich creamy-tan shade that you find in old parchment, and then odd little touches of soft green and red and black have been worked into designs that decorate the back of each big comfortable chair? Indeed, you'll seldom see chairs more roomy or luxurious looking, with high curved backs, artistically shaped and broad restful arms, and upholstered in printed linen that faithfully reproduces each tint and tone of the wicker.

Another particularly lovely set is of the new weathered blue wicker, with inside linings of deep golden yellow, and the upholstery of black linen showing gorgeous colorings.

Unusual in shape, but with comfort in every line, is a set of Egyptian crav wicker, with the reeds curved to form the most delightfully unusual arm rests. Another set of the popular weathered blue boasts a settee that is curved in an entirely novel manner, so that it will slip cozily into almost any corner.

In the less expensive wicker sets you will find many delightfully comfortable designs in all the popular shades, as well as pieces that may be tinted after your own plans. There are all kinds of chairs and tables, and chaise lounges, and tea carts, and ferneries, and lamps for either table or floor, and artistic bird cages, and even a summer dining room set with sideboard and large table.

But remember that there are many new housewives buying in Washington this season, and that early selection is well worth while is a good hint to you from KATE HINTON.
